The “5 C’s” Of Dating

by Dave M., Author, Insider Internet Dating

I hope you got a lot out of my interview "How To Meet Women Using Internet Dating Websites."

I thought you'd like to read this special mini-report. This is my 5-point checklist for success with women and I call it the “5 C’s”.

It's a simple and easy 5-point way to remember what it takes to make a woman feel attraction for you...

Control

Self-control is CRITICAL to success with women. Have control over your emotions and your ego. For instance, if a woman gives you a response that you don't like, don't give HER the satisfaction of letting it get to you. DON'T react.

A friend of mine (who's really good with women) once told me: "A reaction is a response to something to DON'T like, therefore if you respond to something she said that you didn't like, the woman will instantly know she got to you."

If she knows she can get to you, then it's game over.

Here's a very common situation you may find yourself in: When a woman you're interested in brings up another man who is interested in her, most guys would lose control and freeze up in this situation.

Instead, try this: Give her a smirk and say, "You should go out with him sometime".

If she REALLY wanted to be with the other guy, don't you think she would be out with him instead of you?

DUH! It's just a test she's throwing at you.

Confidence

Your level of confidence is the very FIRST thing a woman will notice about you (and it's the most important of the 5C's). It comes across in the way you walk, the way you talk and the way you carry yourself.

It also comes across in the way you write a profile, or respond to an email. The words you use are the first way a woman will judge you online. Your words will reveal a lot about how you see yourself and how you think.

When you type up an email or IM that a woman is going to see, my suggestion is before you click the send button, read the email aloud. Ask yourself if it sounds like something that a confident, in-control man would say. If it doesn't, clean it up or start all over.

Challenge

If a woman knows exactly where she stands with you, her attraction for you will drop faster than a speeding bullet! This is human nature 101. We want what we can't have and we value what we have to work for.

It's like the old saying: "Easy come, easy go."

The key here is to keep her on her toes, so she NEVER knows what to expect from you. Women like the 'bad-boy' type because he's a challenge and is constantly keeping her on her toes. THAT thrill, the unpredictable attitude is the part of the bad-boy you want to harness.

There's a psychological attraction trigger I use called Misdirection. Watch the movie Swordfish and you'll understand what I'm talking about.

SPECIFIC TACTIC: In your emails to a woman, mention the fact that you are busy, and you've got other women emailing you. Wait a few days to call her, after she sends you her phone number. And ALWAYS, always, always be the first to end the conversation.

Comedy

Humor is a potent ingredient to your online game... so use it. When you are writing to her, you can make fun of the other lame guys on the site. Point out some of the retarded things they say and do.

Remember, women will like you for the way you make them feel, laughing causes chemicals to rush through our bodies, causing us to feel good.... she'll associate you with being a fun guy, someone who is not boring, someone who's fun to be with and has good fun energy.

Make fun of something she said, misspelled or something she wore.

When you get her on the phone, make fun of her for using the personals in the first place and jokingly accuse her of being a desperate, unattractive woman with no personality. Watch.... she'll want to meet up with you just to prove you wrong!

Charm

Charm is all about putting the rest of the "C's" together. When you are funny, challenging, in control and confident, you create a powerful synergy and a "Vibe" about you that women notice... called CHARM.

Whether you're communicating by email or in person. Women will sense it, and just know that you 'get it.'

Check out the movie "Swordfish", and notice how John Travolta's character combines all of these traits in a way that makes you want to know more about him. He's a bit arrogant, very confident, but down to earth... and you never quite know what's going on inside his head. Women find this combination MAGICALLY attractive.

One More Thing...

Using the Internet to meet women is like diversifying your stock portfolio:

You don't invest EVERYTHING into 1 type of stock...

Instead, you have some mutual funds, some high-risk stocks, some conservative stocks etc.

Internet dating is just another way to meet women.

You've probably heard a million stories from friends about how they or someone they know has met a great girl online... and maybe you've even tried it.

FACT: Match.com reports 24,600 new women members signing up each month!

This is great news... because it means online dating is becoming more and more socially ACCEPTED... and as that happens, more and more REALLY interesting women are joining these sites looking for good men.

As I write this, there are literally TENS OF MILLIONS of women who are members of online social and dating sites...

Amazing, isn't it?

Unfortunately there are some major obstacles that make meeting women online difficult (if not hopeless) if you don't know the SECRETS.

If you're reading this mini-report and saying to yourself "I really need to improve what I'm doing..." because you're NOT getting the results you want with women online then I couldn't agree with you more.

Success Doesn't Just "Happen"

Sure you might have some good experiences here and there because you were either speaking to the right girl at the right time or got a girl that was more needy than you were...

But consistent success with meeting women online is the result of knowing EXACTLY what to do each step of the way and then being able to do it.
